THE EVOLUTION OF CAFE DELUXE: A FRESH TAKE ON AMERICAN DINING

Neighborhood Restaurant Kicks off 2013 with Inspired, Updated Offerings

Washington, DC (February 19, 2012)—A new year calls for a new way of thinking, cooking and eating at Cafe Deluxe. As 2013 continues to roll in, the American Bistro is rolling out a refreshed menu at all four of its restaurants. The updated offerings provide a fresh take on American dining, featuring redefined classics made from scratch with flavors inspired from around the world.

Cafe Deluxe is excited to introduce housemade flatbreads and small plates to their appetizer menu. Diners are sure to indulge in flatbreads like the Roasted Grapes, Tomatoes and Creamy Feta on a crispy thin whole wheat crust or new small plates like Deviled Eggs with lump crab meat, a Warm Medley of Olives or Spiced Candied Walnuts.

A bistro classic, over a pound of steamed Prince Edward Island Mussels served in an array of sauces, including Classic Belgian made with a white wine broth, Fra Diavolo style in a spicy tomato saffron broth and the Asian-influenced Thai Curry, a zesty blend of coconut curry broth, cilantro and lime. Guests will also enjoy new sandwiches like the Shaved Prime Rib with caramelized onions, Peppadew relish, provolone cheese on a hoagie roll.

"Cafe Deluxe has been a popular neighborhood establishment for 17 years, and we want to continually be in sync with the wants and tastes of our community," said Brian Sullivan, Co-Founder and President of Clover Restaurant Group. "We did several tastings with guests and we listened to their feedback. We've created a menu with new fresh classics and kept our guests' favorites while never compromising our commitment to fresh and quality ingredients."

The new menu is now available at each location: Gaithersburg (in the Rio Entertainment Center), Bethesda (at the corner of Woodmont Avenue and Elm Street), Wisconsin Avenue (near the Washington National Cathedral) and Tysons Corner (next to Crate & Barrel).
